Summary -

Banker Andy Dufrene is wrongfully convicted of the murder of his wife and her lover, and sentenced to two consecutive life sentences in Shawshank State Prison.

Life seems to have taken a turn for the worst, but taking his predicament in his stride he befriends some of the other inmates in particular a character named Red. Over time Andy finds a way to live out life in prison with as relative an ease as one can.

Review-

We give this movie 5 stars.

The film was well directed. The sets used gave the film a perfect atmosphere for the theme and storyline. The story was easy to follow helped especially by Red’s narration.

Actors Morgan Freeman and Tim Robbins portray their characters with an award winning acting standard.

We highly recommend this film to all senior cycle classes for English and media studies classes.
